CASE NO. 2:10-cv-02080-KJD -PAL

DEFENDANT WELLS FARGO BANK,
N.A.'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., incorrectly named as "Wells Fargo N.A." and America's Servicing Company¹ ("Wells Fargo") moves to dismiss Plaintiffs' Complaint in its entirety with prejudice under FRCP 12(b)(6) and FRCP 8.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Plaintiff's Complaint must be dismissed because it is incomprehensible. The complaint does not comply with Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which states that

A pleading that states a claim for relief must contain:

America's Servicing Company is the doing business as name of the servicing division of Wells
Fargo Bank, N.A.

(1) a short and plain statement of the grounds for the court's jurisdiction, unless the court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new jurisdictional support;

(2) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief; and

(3) a demand for the relief sought, which may include relief in the alternative or different types of relief.

FRCP 8(a).

Here, the Complaint does not contain any short and plain statements, but rather, is written in a form of language that is unintelligible to Wells Fargo. The failure to comply with FRCP 8(a) necessitates dismissal.

Additionally, a defendant is entitled to dismissal of a complaint when a plaintiff fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. FRCP 12(b)(6). To survive a motion to dismiss, "[f]actual allegations must be enough to raise a right to relief above the speculative level." Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). A complaint must be dismissed if it does not include "enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Id.

To the extent the complaint contains any facts at all, it certainly does not include on its face enough facts to state any claims to relief, as Wells Fargo is unable to understand the statements in the complaint. Because the Complaint does not give Wells Fargo any notice as to the nature of the claims against it, the Complaint must be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice.
